

SPED Collaborative Pre-Recorded Information for the General Public

Opening Information:

The IGAC Special Education Division is a collaboration of the Human Rights Authority and Legal Advocacy Services created to help families navigate special education through training, advocacy, and legal support.

Frequently Asked Questions:

1. What services does the Special Education Division offer?
 - A. Special education training, information, advocacy, and legal services.
2. Can I request more information or file a complaint online?
 - A. Yes, the Special Education Division information, frequently asked questions, and online complaint form can be found on the Illinois Guardianship and Advocacy Commission webpage on the right side under GAC Special Education Initiative tab.