III. COMMUNICATIONS:

IV. NEW BUSINESS

A. New complaints -

09-050-9006 - a consumer alleges he was raped. I mailed him a consent, but he moved before he received it - I have located him, however, he has not returned my calls as of yet.

09-050-9008 - a student with an IEP was progressing; although she had problems with tardiness. An IEP was scheduled for December and the family notified the school that they could not attend; because the parents did not expect dramatic changes in programming or the IEP, they agreed to allow the meeting to proceed without their participation. After the meeting, the parents were notified that the student's placement was changed to a special school for students with behavioral problems. The family has requested another IEP meeting to be convened so that they may discuss the change of placement and ask the school to allow the student education in the least restrictive setting.

B. Other new business - training of newly appointed HRA volunteers.
