III. COMMUNICATIONS: Note from Rodney

NEW BUSINESS

A. New complaints -

10-050-9025 - a facility has allowed a consumer to dominate the unit she lives. Residents are fearful for their safety and staff walk around on egg shells and they are afraid to confront the person. She is not required to attend day training and because of her size (she is large and threatening), staff cannot control her violent outbursts. The living unit is very uncomfortable for daily living.

10-050-9026 - a consumer gave staff $170 to deposit in his bank account. The money was not deposited and is now lost. The guardian wanted the facility to call police and the facility said "no" they would call OIG and that it is the OIG's responsibility it is to call police if they determine it is necessary.

B. Other new business -
